BYU Tour Leaves On Trip to Biblical Lands

A BYU tour, sponsored by the Travel Studies Dept., will leave Saturday for a six-week study of Bible and Book of Mormon lands.

UNDER the direction of Dr. Lynn M. Hilton, chairman of the BYU-Salt Lake Adult Education Center, the tour will include visits to Hebron, the ancient home of Abraham in Jordan, Israel, Egypt, Syria and the ruins around Mexico City and Merida, Yucatan.

Prof. Ellis T. Rasmussen . . . assistant director of Travel Studies tour.

THIRTY-five people, including the director and his assistant, Prof. Ellis T. Rasmussen, assistant professor of Religious Instruction at BYU, will participate on the tour. Tour members have been instructed at length on the ideas and questions they should formulate while visiting these lands. They will be gone 40 days and will visit 15 foreign countries, covering 21,000 miles.

THIS is the first time that Book of Mormon and Bible Land tours have been combined into one tour, offered for the price of one.

Dr. Hilton served as assistant to the BYU dean of Adult Education and Extensions from 1953-58, and is presently the Chairman of Adult Education Center and Assoc. Professor of Education in Salt Lake City.

Prof. Rasmussen, a scholar of the Middle East and the Hebrew culture, belongs to the National Association of Professors of Hebrew.

The tourists will return Nov. ember 6.

Meeting for Senators Called To Nominate New Presidency

The first Senate meeting of the year will be held Monday at 7 p.m. in 172 Knight Bldg.

Former senators desirous of running for the office of Senate president are invited to attend this meeting, and are requested to return their copies of BYU code and parliamentary hand books, according to Don Jarvis, acting Senate president.

A SUMMATION of all offices to be filled and nominations for president and vice-president will be made. Because former Senate President Eugene Lambert did not return to school it is necessary that a new Senate president, a former senator, be elected. If no one qualifies for this position, the senators can legally select an individual who will act as president for the remainder of the year.

Geographical Seating At Assembly

The Smith Fieldhouse will be the scene of the traditional "Welcome Back" assembly at 10 a.m. Thursday, according to Phyllis Nelson, Vice-President of Culture.

STUDENTS from different states will be seated in special sections. Upon arrival in the fieldhouse the students will be separated into their geographical areas at the top of the stairs, and song sheets will be given.

Those taking the ramp will be students from California, North-western States and New England. California students will sit above the green seats and New England in the south balcony.

STUDENTS from Utah, Idaho and other western states and all foreign countries will go down the stairs and sit in the following sections: Utah, lower half, west of playing floor; Idaho and other western states, top section, west bleachers. The playing floor will be reserved for the faculty.

Nineteen New Nominees Compete for Frosh Posts

Nineteen candidates were introduced by their respective campaign managers at the nominations meeting held Wednesday for freshmen class officers.

CANDIDATES for president include Jens Madsen, Del Mar Williams, Larry Waltz, Dan Blackwell, Allan Edson and David Hinchings.

Todd Christofferson, Marshall Felts and Hellen Hoover were nominated for vice-president. Secretarial candidates are Louise Rolapp, Patcee Bradford and Linda Netherton.

Nominees for class senators are Tim Hall, Carolyn Hill, Chris Parks, Lorn N. Lau, Trish Rasmussen, Robert D. Breton and John M. English.

NOMINATIONS will be accepted in 170 of the Student Service

Center until 5:30 Thursday, said Dave Moller, a member of the elections committee.

All platforms and qualifications must be submitted by Saturday.

Candidates must take a test on the ASBYU Constitution to be given Thursday at 7 p.m. in room 295, Knight Bldg., at Sept. 30, at 5 p.m. in room 25, Knight Bldg.

DURING the meeting, Sue Larson, last year's freshman class secretary, said that spirit and enthusiasm are two vital elements needed in any campaign.

Rick Patterson, former freshman senator, told the candidates that "personal contact is the main thing." He talked to prospective candidates about campaigning and offered hints on the achievement of success. He also reminded them to be humble and thankful for all those who would be working with them.

"WHY AM I running?" "Do I realize the required time and responsibilities involved?" were a few of the questions candidates should be prepared to answer, said Benson Whittle, member of Junior AHS Council.

Bob Laird, Leadership Committee Chairman, likened the students to a group of horses, some of whom would run well and perhaps win the race.

But he reminded the group that it is the work-horse that gets the job done, and that as candidates they must have both qualities to make good officers.

Primary elections will be held Oct. 3 and 4.

Indonesia Calls Troops

JAKARTA, Indonesia — Indonesian Army Commandos and other crack troops were deployed Wednesday along the borders of Indonesian Borneo as President Sukarno called on the nation to remain united against what he described as "the challenge of Neo-Colonialist Malaysia."

France To Continue Tests

AVIGNON, France — President Charles De Gaulle, in a "meet-the-people" swing through the Rhone River Valley, said Wednesday France is determined to continue nuclear tests despite the treaty banning such experiments everywhere else underground.

De Gaulle has refused to sign the pact, preferring to press on and develop a nuclear capability for France.

In a series of five speeches before large crowds in flag-draped villages, De Gaulle said he will not knuckle under what he called the nuclear "hegemony" of the United States and the Soviet Union.

Civil Rights in House

WASHINGTON — House Civil Rights drafters have tentatively approved double-barreled enforcement power for President Kennedy's proposed ban on discrimination in public accommodations and an exemption for so-called "Mrs. Murphy" rooming houses.

Publication Dominican Army Arrests Policy Set President Juan Bosch By Universe

"All-American" is the goal the Daily Universe staff is working towards for the campus paper this year. The Daily Universe will be expanded to an average of eight pages daily.

The added space will give room to cover campus events and to include news from all over the world. This will add to students' knowledge and awareness of the world, according to Bruce Olsen, editor.

Each organization, committee or class is encouraged to select a person to be responsible for newspaper coverage. Persons sponsoring the main events of the year are encouraged to have the chairman talk with the editor on overall plans.

HOWEVER, all material published will be done so at the discretion of the editor in whose category the information falls. There will be no "going to the top" to seek favors, Mr. Olsen said.

Articles must be submitted by noon two school days prior to publication. The name and phone number of the person submitting the material should be listed at the bottom of the article.

A FORM will be available which will list all required information for Quizzes and Watch Fests. The form must be submitted by noon two school days prior to publication.

Pictures must be submitted by one of the editors three days prior to publication. Those requesting the picture are responsible for any props or costumes needed. Normally three persons will be the maximum number of people appearing in a picture.

LETTERS to the editor should be no longer than 200 words. The editor will use as many letters as room will allow, but letters which defame any person will not be printed.

Names must be signed and telephone numbers and student numbers listed. No phone names will be accepted, but names will be withheld if requested and placed "on file."

To further acquaint you with our staff and policies we will be holding an openhouse this month which will be announced later.

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic, (UPI)—The armed forces Wednesday deposed and arrested President Juan Bosch in a move they heralded as an Anti-Communist coup.

The Communist party was outlawed, the new constitution annulled, Congress dissolved and a provisional government set up.

BOSCH and HIS entire cabinet were held prisoners in the presidential palace. A manifesto signed by 26 of the nation's top military leaders, including the chiefs of the Army, Navy, Air Force and Police, pledged continued Dominican adherence to treaty obligations.

In Washington, the State Department announced suspension of relations with the Dominican Republic and a cutoff of aid. A spokesman described the overthrow of the Bosch regime as "a less to the policies of the countries of this hemisphere, as well as our own."

THE COUP, CARRIED OUT at 3 a.m., was accomplished without bloodshed. Bosch, according to Washington dispatches, made several desperate efforts to contact friendly Latin American leaders abroad by telephone to stave off the revolt. Bosch and Mrs. Bosch, the latter of Cuban birth, made telephone calls to the presidents of Mexico, Costa Rica and Venezuela and the Governor of Puerto Rico before communications were cut, according to U. S. State Department sources.

Bosch was represented as appealing for support from outside to discourage the military leaders from going through with their coup.

Mrs. Bosch also called the chairman of the council of the Organization of American States, Ambassador Gonzalo Facio, in Washington, before the lines were cut.

THE COUP LEADERS included Generals Antonio Imbert and Luis Amiana, only survivors of the group of political dissidents who assassinated ex-dictator Gen. Rafael L. Trujillo in 1961 to start the Dominican Republic on the road to democracy for the first time in more than 30 years.

Bosch, elected only seven months ago, was the country's first democratically-elected president since the early '30's.

Radio Santo Domingo, the government transmitter, conveyed first official news of the coup to the people. It termed the revolt "a logical consequence of the popular desperation against the progressive and alarming advance of Communism" in the Dominican Republic.

ONLY TWO DAYS ago, the political opposition and business elements in Santo Domingo called a general strike "against Communism" to protest the government's inability or unwillingness to act against the radicals.

Forensic Social Held Thursday

Education Assn.

Needs 2 Officers

The BYU Education Association needs officers for the coming school year, according to former president Marvin Nelson.

Needed are a 1st vice-president, 2nd vice-president and secretary. Names of the candidates will be presented by the nominating committee consisting of Mima Rasmussen, Grant Bendixsen and Owen Barrett. This year's 1st vice-president will become president.

The meeting will be held Thursday in 124 McKay Bldg. at 3:30 p.m.

Campus Comment and Controversy Defends Senate

Dear Editor,

While your September 23 article regarding our ineffective Senate is for the most part correct in its criticism, I should like to insert an appeal for fairness.

It is always a sign of political immaturity to produce hasty legislation, and having been an interested observer at a few BYU Senate meetings, I can assure you that they exercise the most professional responsibility of which they are capable. One must always bear in mind that in its quantity, but in its quality. And there is, of course, a great deal of research required for the various bills, research which generally goes unnoticed by the student body.

Significant changes are sometimes necessary in proposals received from the Executive Committee, as was the case with the Senate and its Budget Committee made several major cuts and

One might also consider reasonable cost of the Senate ($215,000), as compared with operation of the Daily Universe ($33,650.00). The Senate's budget would be used only one year, but it would still be a yearly organ.

Remember, you don't throw away a fire extinguisher just cause there isn't any fire.

Banyan Sales Indicate Record Year

Results of Banyan sales during registration indicate that this will be a record year for the yearbook, according to Business Manager Don Erickson.

THE EXACT number of books sold so far is not known; however, all indications show that sales are well ahead of previous years.

Banyans will be on sale for the rest of the week at the reduced price of $3. Students who have not purchased their yearbooks may order them at the cashier's office, D-148 Smoot Administration Bldg., after Friday the price will be $7, said Mr. Bracken.

THIS YEAR'S book will feature 180 pages of school year activities. Included will be an individual photo of every student who takes advantage of the free service. The Banyan, according to Mr. Bracken, is one of the few yearbooks in the country that provides this service free.

The 1964 Banyan will feature many new sections. Anticipating the alteration of many old traditions caused by the move to the Y Center, the Banyan plans to "capture the mood of the campus during transition." Also included will be several sections to promote school spirit.

Final sales end immediately after second semester registration.

Play Tryouts Scheduled

Tryouts for the first Family Theatre play of the fall semester, "Off With His Honorable Head," will be held Friday and Saturday, in College Hall, according to Dr. Charles Metten, director.

THYOUT times are 4-5:30 p.m. on Friday and 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. on Saturday. All students are invited to read, regardless of past dramatic experience, the director stated.

"Off With His Honorable Head" is an Oriental fantasy and will be presented in late October. There are parts for a large number of men and women.

Students who wish to read but cannot meet the tryout schedule should call Dr. Metten at Ext. 2179.

Casual, Neat, Clothes Are Fashionable Now

There was a time when a man's tie would be a dead giveaway as to his college affiliation.

Today, were you to take four college boys from four different campuses and put them together, there'd be no way of telling who's from where. As a matter of fact, regardless of the campus each came from, he'd look at home at most any college.

The man from the South, the midwesterner, the northwesterner and the man from the East would each be wearing loafers, crew socks, solid colored slacks, a sport shirt or an oxford button-down shirt, sans tie, and—if the weather were on the cool side—a cardigan or pullover sweater.

"The casual look at most colleges is the accepted thing," says R. M. Seibert, men's wear expert at Chemstrand Company.

For dates and other social events at college, however, a new man appears, according to a recent survey done for Chemstrand. He may still wear slacks, but with these is a sport jacket. If not this, he'll be in a business suit, usually with a vest.

The sport shirt is replaced, in most instances, by a white oxford button-down, worn with a regimental stripe, knitted solid or small repeat pattern tie. Socks are coordinated with the tie, and most students' wardrobes run the gamut from argyles to solids.

As one fashion expert states, "Students today may dress differently from their Dads, but the bills amount to the same."

Sixty Frosh Footballers Seek Starting Positions

Brigham Young University freshman football coach, Chris Apostol, began the "long look" at 60 freshmen football players Monday afternoon on the Cougar practice field.

THE GROUP includes two high school All-Americans and one honorable mention All-American. Eleven of the players received all-state honors during their prep careers.

THE ALL-STARS include Kent Oborn from Payson, Utah. Oborn, a tailback candidate, was chosen to the high school All-American team and was all-state in football and basketball. Bob Alphin, 6-4, 210 pounds, was an all-state end at Orem High School.

DeRoy Lavastal compiled a very impressive prep record while at Farrington High School in Honolulu. A 220-pound guard, he was chosen All-American, lineman of the year, prep player of the year and all-state.

Pat McGinty of Scottsdale, Ariz., gained All-American honorable mention and all-state honors as a back during his high school career. Other all-stars are Bob Collins, also of Scottsdale, a 212 pound tackle; Richard Lamb, a halfback from Minersville, Utah; Lenny Geertsens, a halfback from East High School in Salt Lake City; and Curg Belcher, a wingback from Vernal, Utah.

OUTSTANDING achievement awards from other states are all-city recognition to Ron Christ, fullback from Wauconda, Ill. An all-city award was also given to Eric "Swede" Irvine, a 230-pound center from Fair Oaks, Calif. Madisonville, Ky. sends Peter Demko, a guard, who was recognized as an all-state player in the Double-A schools.

Doug Schow, Jr. was an all-state back at Twin Falls High School in Idaho. Coming to BYU from Wheat Ridge, Colo. is Terry Newson who was an all-state guard.

SINCE COACH Apostol discards scrapbooks when looking for men to fill the Kitten uniforms, these highly touted high school graduates will find competition in abundance as these six pupils vie for starting positions.

Wildcats, Cougars Seek First Win In Opening Conference Game for '81

by Bud Tolman
Universe Sports Editor
Arizona's Wildcats will try to make it two in a row over the Cougars from Brigham Young in this Saturday's gridiron battle in Tucson.

THE MEETING between the two teams will inaugurate the 1983 football season for the Western Athletic Conference.

Last year the Wildcats dumped the Cougars 27-21 in Arizona but it was one of the most exciting games of the season. The teams held ties of 7-7, 14-14 and 21-21 before Arizona took a final 27-21 margin.

Even that margin was in question up to the final gun though as the Cougars were on the field on one-yard line when the gun sounded to end the battle.

THE WILDCATS will be tough again this season with 27 letter men returning. Head coach Jim LaRue can count his lettermen at least two deep at every position. Combined with a veteran line the Wildcats will have excellent speed and power and a sufficient passing attack.

Jerry Zeman, Arizona's leading all-America candidate, leads the line from his tackle position. The remainder of the defense finds two other lettermen at tackle, five lettermen at guard and three nonlettermen will be vying for the center slot.

THE OFFENSE will be led by still another Arizona candidate for all-America honors, halfback Tom Phillips. Phillips runs the 100-yard dash in 9.6 seconds and has proved to be an elusive runner and pass-catcher.

There are no less than four veteran quarterbacks to handle the Wildcat signal calling duties and a trio of hard running full backs to help out with the rushing chores.

The Wildcats should prove to be much tougher against the Cougars than they were against the Utah States in their opening encounter last weekend when they were whitewashed 42-0.

THE AGGIES' brilliant execution of their new "I-T" formation surprised the Arizonans but the Cougars will have nothing so new or startling to show the Wildcats. Last year Fortie led the Cats in their near upset of one but he is gone now and senior Sophomore Ron Stewart Junior Phil Brady will have to provide the spark and the big punch to get the Cougars back on the winning beam.

Lots of Action On Intramural Agenda

by Stan Hodge
Asst. Sports Editor

The Men's Intramural Department under the direction of Jay Naylor will start a "weekend bachelors" all returning students and a party greeting to all new students on campus in a letter received by the Universe Thursday.

AT THE SAME TIME Naylor announced the October 4th closing for entries in the following events: Flag football, horse races (singles), and tennis (singles). There are also three co-ed activities now open to entry. These include badminton (doubles), tennis (doubles), and volleyball (3 boys and 3 girls). Entries for these activities, Naylor stressed, must be in Room 232 SFH by 5 p.m. Oct. 4.

The intramural activities are designed to involve the total growth of the individual through direct, indirect, and incidental activities. The intramural program seeks to stimulate an appreciation of proper physical conditioning by providing experiences in desirable recreational activities.

THE INTRAMURAL program has, by far, the highest percent of student activity of any or organization on campus. In addition it is one of the fastest growing. In the 1962-63 school year 400 men participated in the various activities as compared to 338 in 1961-62.

At BYU there is a genuine interest in "sports for all" and sports for sport's sake. The increasing number of students participating in intramurals and the growing demand for additional opportunities in competition bear witness to the value of an spirited and vigorous intramural program.

AMONGST the 37 activities listed for the coming school year are, in addition to those already listed, the popular Battle of the Beef (tag-of-war), Turkey Trot (cross-country run), basketball, bowling, checkers, chess, table tennis, gymnastics, the colorful, and exciting Winter Carnival, softball, bicycle race, track and field and many others.

THE MEN compete in teams formed by housing units, clubs, wards, and independent groups. All teams compete for the supremacy trophy which is awarded on the basis of accumulated points from the various activities. One trophy is awarded for each of the above divisions.

THE ORGANIZATIONS are also eligible to compete for championship trophies in basketball, bowling, flag-football, gymnastics, softball, swimming, track and field, volleyball, and the Battle of Beef. All trophies are kept in the intramural trophy case in the Fieldhouse. A trophy must be won three consecutive years by a unit before it gains permanent possession of the trophy.

An intramural medal is also awarded to each individual placing first in intramural competition.

STUDENTS are urged to balance their activities by participating in this program. For information concerning intramural play, call Extension 2460 or visit the staff personally. The program is varied enough to meet the needs of every student, regardless of his skill or ability.

Mitchell Views
Substitute Rule

"It reminds me of taxation without representation."

THAT'S THE WAY BYU's football coach Hal Mitchell feels the Football Rules Committee's latest substitution ruling that went into effect this fall. Mitchell, who wishes the college coaches themselves would have had more say in the matter, voiced his opinion earlier this fall.

"Actually, the rule will help equalize the teams," admitted Mitchell, "but it will also make the game harder to play and also cover too much of the coaches' attention to substitutions and away from the game itself."

ASKED ABOUT BYU's plans for meeting the new substitution situations, Mitchell indicated the Cougars will rely on one or two units for platooning, using three or four additional substitutes to flash into the game as the occasion permits.

"Frankly, I don't believe these changes are going to improve the game," he opined. "I would like to believe our best offensive team is playing offense, and our best defensive squad is in on defense. Now I'm not sure this will be the case."

FOR ALL the discussion and confusion arising from the ruling, Mitchell believes the opportunity for substitution is cut and dried. "Coaches will have to be able to the clock in order to get their players in and out at the right time."
